NEWS for October, 2009

Interfaith's first annual Pre-Labor Day Picnic at our Warehouse on Harris Road in Kilmarnock was a great success. About 50 Interfaith supporters gathered at the warehouse for an evening picnic supper and tour of the facility. Many had never seen the warehouse before. Yvonne Williams and her volunteers scrubbed and shined up the warehouse and its contents so that all were displayed to their very best advantage.

And we got our first look at the new Interfaith Web site – www.interfaithservicecouncil.com.

We urge everyone to visit us on the Web site, and we would appreciate your suggestions and comments. The new Hope and Help directory, assembled by the St. Andrews Mission Outreach Committee, will soon be posted on the Web site and will be a valuable resource for all.

Other News:

Mark your calendar for Tuesday, Oct. 27, for a dinner hosted by Interfaith for the church pastors in Lancaster and Northumberland counties. You'll receive your invitation soon.

Interfaith will meet on Thursday, Oct. 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall at St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, 435 E. Church St., Kilmarnock. Please try to be there, or send a representative from your church.

Our monthly meetings are very important. Interfaith's officers and program directors give their reports so that representatives from member churches can take back the information to their congregations about funding, events and plans for the future.

Do you have issues or questions from your congregation that you want to bring to the group's attention? Please come to the Oct. 8 meeting and let Interfaith hear from you!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: Volunteers are needed to pick up donated household items and deliver them to Interfaith's warehouse. We hope each church will commit to picking up and delivering donated items during a specific month. We would like to spread this job around, to lighten the work load for each volunteer.

Thank you for supporting the Interfaith Service Council!
